SAMUEL ASHLEY,

One of the grantees of Claremont, son of Daniel Ashley, was born in Deerfield, Mass., March 20, 1720, and came with his father to Winchester, when quite a young man. He was chosen selectman of Winchester in 1755, and several subsequent years, and was representative in the provincial congress in 1775 and 1776. He had grants of land by Governor Benning Wentworth in several towns on each side of Connecticut river in New Hampshire and Vermont. He was a justice of the peace, and one of three persons in Cheshire county authorized to record deeds. In 1775 he was appointed one of the Committee of Safety for the state; was a member of the executive council from 1776 to 1780; mustering officer, superintended the enlistment and organization of many of the troops raised in the westerly part of New Hampshire during the Revolutionary war, and was commissioned colonel of a regiment. He was a volunteer on the staff of General John Stark, and with him in the battle of Bennington, on the sixteenth of August, 1777. Mr. Ashley removed from Winchester to Claremont, about 1782, his sons, Oliver and Samuel, Jr., having preceded him. He died in Claremont, was buried in the cemetery in the west part of the town, and his tombstone bears the following inscription:

> In memory of the Hon. Samuel Ashley, Esq. Blessed with good natural talents, and a heart rightly to improve them, he in various departments of civil and military life, exhibited a character honorable to himself and useful to others. Having presided for several years in the lower court of this county, he with probity and fidelity displayed the virtues of the patriot and Christian as well in public as domestic life. The small-pox put an end to his earthly course February 18, 1792, aged 71.

CAPTAIN OLIVER ASHLEY,

One of the grantees of the town, was the oldest son of the Hon. Samuel Ashley, came to Claremont soon after the town was

2. David Ashley (Robert[1]), born 3 June 1642 in Springfield, Mass.; died 8 December 1718 in Westfield, Mass.; married 24 November 1663 in New Haven, Conn., Hannah Glover, daughter of Henry and Helena Glover, born in May 1646 in New Haven; died 7 June 1722 in Westfield.

David Ashley settled in Springfield and lived there the first three years and a half of his married life. In 1661 grants of lands had been made to Captain Pynchon, Robert Ashley and George Colton at the new settlement then being made at Woronoco, now Westfield, and David Ashley eventually had his father's title confirmed to him. On February 8, 1663–4, David Ashley received a thirty acre grant at Woronoco, on condition that he and the other grantees were "to pay the Indians for their purchase within three years and that they go there to dwell." He was one of the original grantees of land on the Fort Side (Main Street) on July 6, 1666. This land was to be settled "in their own persons on the last of May next." He probably removed his family to Westfield in the spring of 1667. He lived near the confluence of Great and Little rivers, and styled himself "yoeman." In March, 1668, a division of territory was made into three parts, and lots cast for it, and David Ashley's lands fell in the first division. In March, 1669, Sacketts creek was granted to Joseph Whiting and David Ashley "to set a mill thereon and grind corn."

At a county court held at Springfield September 27, 1670, Walter Lee brought an action against David Ashley "for taking away from him 10 shock of his wheat last year and a load of Indian corn this year off the ground which he had plowed and sowed." This must have been a mistake on Mr. Ashley's part, as the parties agreed before the jury brought in their verdict.

In the fall of 1671 Mr. Edward Taylor, recently graduated at Harvard College, was invited by the inhabitants of Westfield to come there and preach to them. He says in his diary, "This being the 2d [1st?] of December, we came to Westfield. . . . We went to Mr. Whiting's. There the men of the town came to welcome me, and after supper I went to Goodman Ashley's, where I was till Mr. Whiting had got his house ready that I might be with him." [*]

David Ashley was one of a committee of three appointed to convey to the government at Boston the protest of the town against a letter dated March 20, 1676, advising that the town of Westfield be abandoned and the inhabitants retreat to Springfield for protection against the Indians, as the cost of maintaining the scattered settlements along the Connecticut River was considered too much. This was during King Philip's War.

On September 6, 1685, the town granted to David Ashley, Thomas Noble, Isaac Phelps and Nathaniel Weller liberty to erect a sawmill "on the brook on the northeast side of the river."

"At a town meeting held November the 18, 1696, it is voted y^{t} Lef^{t} Samuel Root, Nathaniel Bancroft, Adijah Dewey and David Ashley should be as a commitey to prise all lands in Westfield, and stock all y^{t} is above one year old, and y^{t} all heads should bee apprised at ten pound p^{r} head to defray town charges."

On June 9, 1712, towards the close of Queen Anne's War, the town voted to "fort" certain houses, and David Ashley's was one of those selected to be "forted."

David Ashley was prominent in the management of Westfield affairs and held a number of responsible offices. He served as a juror in 1665; he was elected a selectman in 1676, 1677, 1679 to 1685, 1694 and 1699; Clerk of the Writs in 1678, 1686 and 1690; and Treasurer of the town in 1694. He performed the duties of all these and other less important offices in a manner satisfactory to the town and creditable to himself, and was highly respected. He united with the Westfield church January 1, 1679–80, five months after its organization, and took the freeman's oath at a court held at Springfield on September 28, 1680.*

The gravestones of David Ashley and his wife are among the oldest in the old Westfield cemetery. They are short irregular slabs of native stone, and are so weather-beaten that they were deciphered with difficulty as follows:

* Administration was granted on the estate of David Ashley 10 March 1718–19 to his widow Hannah. [Hampsh. Co. Prob. Rec., vol. 4, p. 13.] The inventory was taken 6 January 1718–9 and amounted to £270: 7s: 6d. It included: "home and homestead, £96"; "lot in ye Fort Meadow, £43"; "4 acre pasture in ye Plain, £16"; "16 acres of plowing land, £35"; "50 acres at Four Mile Brook, £5"; "16 acres at Munn's Meadow, £2"; "5 acres in the 100 Acre Swamp and 6 acres at ye Pine Hill, 5£"; and cows, swine, household furniture and wearing apparel. [Ditto, p. 23.]

The settlement of his estate was to the widow Hannah, the nine living children, and James, the only child of his son Joseph deceased. [Ditto, p. 24.]

† The first five children are recorded both in Springfield and Westfield, but from the fact that the third, fourth and fifth are recorded at the same time in Springfield, and as their father was then living in Westfield, there is no doubt that all but the two oldest were born in the latter place.

Samuel Ashley settled in Westfield. He was a carpenter by trade, but naturally was engaged to a large extent in farming. He also kept the inn at Westfield for a number of years. He was a considerable land owner, and had a quarter interest in a gristmill at Two Mile Brook in company with his brother Dea. David Ashley and Lieut. James Dewey.

In 1719 he sold to his brother David half the homelot which had belonged to their father. His name appears either as grantor or grantee in a large number of deeds of land during his residence in Westfield.

Samuel Ashley was conspicuous in the management of town affairs and his name is to be seen in the records in various connections. He was elected tythingman in 1697, 1698 and 1703. On November 1, 1700, he was chosen with his brother Deacon David and two others a committee to build the schoolhouse. He was elected a selectman in 1703, 1704 and 1720. In 1709 he was elected town constable, but refused to serve. On March 8, 1713–4, he was appointed one of a committee of three to settle the bounds between Westfield and Springfield. He united with the Westfield church April 15, 1714, and was very active in its interests. He was appointed on the committee to build a new meeting-house in 1719, and, after its completion, was chosen a member of the seating committee in October, 1721. He continued to be interested in the welfare of the church up to his death, and his services were considered worthy of a special vote of the town after his death, which was presented to his widow.[*]

David Ashley settled in Westfield. He lived on the south side of Main Street, buying of his brother Samuel in 1719 one-half of their father's homelot. He was a cooper by trade, but in one deed (of 1728) he is styled "clothier."[†]

"November 17, 1697, granted to Thomas Root, Lieut. Root, Nathaniel Bancroft and David Ashley, Jr., liberty to set up a gristmill on the west side, at the place called the half mile fall, o'r on the little river, where they shall see cause, between the up'r end of the field and Mun's widow." David Ashley was later associated with his brother Samuel and Lieut. James Dewey in the ownership of a gristmill on Two Mile Brook, and eventually appears to have bought out his partners' interests.

"May 8, 1716, Deken David Ashley had liberty by a vote of the Town to set up his Tainter hooks in highway near his own hows provided he takes care that it doth not damnifi creturs going upon the comons by ensnaring of them in the backside of the frame."

David Ashley became one of the leading men of Westfield. He was elected a selectman in 1712 and 1713; constable in 1707 and 1723; and in 1709 sealer of weights and measures, gauger and packer, which latter office he performed in such a satisfactory manner that he was reëlected to it annually until his death. He was chosen with his brother Samuel and two others a committee to build a new schoolhouse on November

Daniel Ashley settled in Westfield, where he engaged in farming. He was one of the original proprietors of the Lower Township (now Sheffield) on the Housatonic River, but no evidence has been found that he removed there with his family. The fact that his wife was a Deerfield woman caused him to visit that town occasionally, and he was appointed from there to attend the delegates from the Five Nations, who came to Albany in the summer of 1723 and were conducted to

Samuel Ashley, his brother Martin and his cousin Rev. Joseph Ashley (12) had been original grantees of Winchester,* N. H., under the Massachusetts charter. In 1753 the settlement of the boundary line between Massachusetts and New Hampshire threw the former grant of Winchester into the New Hampshire territory, and it became necessary to obtain a re-grant. This purpose was accomplished by securing to the original grantees the same tract under a charter from Benning Wentworth, and Winchester was incorporated July 2, 1753. Settling in Winchester,† Samuel Ashley, his step-father, Col. William Symes, and Capt. Josiah Willard were chosen the first selectmen of the town. Mr. Ashley, while living in Northfield, had occupied lands which fell over the new line in Hinsdale, N. H., and was one of the "Hinsdale petitioners" August 29, 1753. He was also a petitioner and grantee of the towns of Windsor, Vt., in 1761, Shrewsbury, Vt., in 1763, and Claremont, N. H., in 1784.‡

At forty years of age, therefore, Samuel Ashley had become an influential citizen, a large land owner, and, for those times, a wealthy man. He was an officer in the militia, a justice of the peace, and one of three men in Cheshire County authorized to record deeds. It was, however, after the age of fifty-three that he came into special prominence by espousing the patriot cause in the Revolution.

Samuel Ashley had been a delegate to the Provincial Government as representative from Winchester, and was at the session which met May 10, 1774, at Portsmouth, at which, notwithstanding the strong remonstrance of John Wentworth, who had been appointed Governor in 1767, the representatives appointed a Committee of Correspondence, for the purpose of exchanging information with similar committees from other colonies. He was also a delegate to the convention held at Exeter on July 21, 1774, which appointed representatives to the First Continental Congress at Philadelphia, and to those held there January 5 and April 21, 1775; the latter two days after the battle of Lexington.

On May 17, 1775, another convention met, composed of 151 delegates, and, styling themselves the First Provisional Congress, appointed the famous Committee of Safety, composed of five members, who, at a session held that day, elected four more, one of whom was Samuel Ashley; and he was in continual attendance from June 14th till June 29th. From that date to October 31st he was absent in the service of the State, during which time he acted as mustering officer and was commissioned (August 24th) Colonel of the "first part" of the regiment lately commanded by Col. Josiah Willard. From October 31st to November 16th he was again a constant attendant on the committee. His services ceased, however, January 5, 1776, when he was elected a member of the Council of Eight, in which body he served till 1780, as one of the two members from Cheshire County, which then included Sullivan County.

On January 10, 1776, Colonel Ashley was appointed First Justice of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas of Cheshire County. On June 26, 1776, the House voted to appoint a committee to consider a petition of Colonel Ashley and others for a company of "Rangers," and two days later voted to raise four companies of fifty men each to guard the Western frontier. Colonel Ashley was to enlist one of these companies, muster and pay the men, and deliver the commissions to the persons chosen officers by the soldiers. The following July he was appointed to muster men for the reënforcement of the army in Canada. At the requisition of General Gates he marched his regiment on October 21st to reënforce the army at Ticonderoga, returning on November 16th.

On May 2, 1777, dispatches were received by the Committee of Safety, stating that the garrison at Ticonderoga was in danger of being taken by the British and urging that the militia be sent forward to reënforce this important post. The following day expresses were sent to Colonels Ashley, Bellows and Chase, entreating them to raise as much of the militia as possible and march to Ticonderoga. In reply, Colonel Ashley marched with one hundred and nine men on May 7th, and served until June 18th, when he was discharged. He reënlisted June 29th, and was present at the evacuation of Ticonderoga by the Americans the following month, receiving his discharge July 11th. The evacuation of Ticonderoga threatened the subjection of New England. At this crisis, the Committee of Safety convened the Legislature on July 17th. The Council and House resolved themselves into a Committee of the Whole and conferred with the Committee of Safety. The State was destitute, and it was supposed that it had done all it possibly could in the way of furnishing troops. On the second day (July 18th) John Langdon made his patriotic offer towards equipping troops to check Burgoyne's advance, and advised that General Stark, who had so nobly defended the honor of New Hampshire at Bunker Hill, should be intrusted with the command. Colonel Ashley immediately volunteered for General Stark's staff. He served on the staff as Brigade Major, and was at the battle of Bennington, receiving his discharge September 25th. He continued in the service under General Gates at Saratoga until Burgoyne's surrender. That he served from purely patriotic motives, the following letter proves:

> TICONDEROGA, NOV. 9, 1777.
> To Cols. ASHLEY AND BELLOWS:
> Gentlemen,—I return to you, and to the officers and soldiers of the regiments under your command, my sincere thanks for the spirit and expedition both you and they have shown in marching, upon the first alarm, upward of one hundred and fifty miles, to the support of this important post when it was threatened with an immediate attack from the enemy's army. I now dismiss you with the honor you have so well deserved.
> I also certify that neither you nor any under your command have received any pay or reward from me for your services on this occasion. That, I leave to be settled by the general Congress with the Convention of your State. With great respect, I am,
>
> Your most Obedient Servant,
> HORATIO GATES.

Colonel Ashley continued in the command of his regiment, the Thirteenth, afterwards the Sixth, New Hampshire until he resigned his colonelcy June 18, 1779. On March 24th of that year he had been chosen with Gen. Nathaniel Folsom a representative to the Continental Congress, but for some unknown reason did not accept.

In 1781 occurred the celebrated Vermont Controversy, where the harmony of the two States, and the towns on either side of the Connecticut, was at stake by the proposed formation of a new State. Colonel Ashley, with ten others, strongly protested, at a meeting held at Charlestown, against the proceedings of the Convention, and doubtless by his own and his associates' determined action prevented civil feud, which had so nearly occurred between these towns themselves. Robert Wier attacked the court for his indictment for encouraging the rioters at Keene in 1782 in the following language: "Colonel Ashley is for arbitrary power, and arbitrary power he shall have; damn the court and their authority."*

About this time Colonel Ashley removed to Claremont. He had been Associate Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for Cheshire County from 1776 until then, and about that time was appointed Chief Justice, a position he filled until July, 1791.

Claremont had been granted to Josiah Willard, Samuel Ashley and sixty-seven others on October 26, 1764, and Samuel Ashley was designated as the first moderator of the grantees. After the Revolution, of the seventy-five shares into which the town was originally divided, twenty-two were possessed by Samuel Ashley and the members of his family. At a meeting of the proprietors May 26, 1784, these shares were, by vote of the proprietors, laid out into one tract, the dividing line being known as "Ashley's Line." Its course was in a straight line across the town, from the vicinity of the "Ferry," easterly from the Connecticut River to the town line of Newport. Eighteen of these twenty-two shares were the confiscated rights of original grantees, who had neglected to pay their proportion of the assessments incidental to the settlement of the town, and for which neglect they were sold at auction, and doubtless purchased by Samuel Ashley. The territory thus acquired was controlled independently from the other town proprietors.

Colonel Ashley had a strong sense of humor, and the nick-names he gave his sons are characteristic—"Snarling" Oliver, and with Jonathan Child was appointed a committee "to confer with the Congress in Massachusetts, and if they then see best with the Assembly in Rhode Island and Connecticut respecting the information which we have received of the situation at Ticonderoga, Crown Point, etc." At a meeting held at Hanover July 5, 1776, it was voted to appoint Oliver Ashley Captain of the Claremont company, which at the same time was ordered "to go to Newbury for three months or less." His brother Samuel was appointed first-lieutenant. This company was the Fourth in the Sixteenth New Hampshire Militia Regiment, Col. Benjamin Bellows, and marched to reënforce the army at Ticonderoga, being in service from October 21 to November 16, 1776. The following year he served there in the same regiment until the evacuation, being discharged July 8th. On August 17th he led his company to Bennington. He reënlisted September 21st, and served under Col. Bellows during the Saratoga campaign, which ended with Burgoyne's surrender. Captain Ashley received his discharge October 21st.

Captain Ashley was elected a representative from Claremont in 1780, and was a delegate at the Charleston Convention, held January 16, 1781, and composed of delegates from forty-three towns of the New Hampshire Grants. In 1784 he was elected a justice of the peace. He also held the rank of Major in the militia and was known by this title.[*]

Major Ashley lived on the farm now owned by John Bailey, and established the ferry across the Connecticut River which bears the family name, the sole right of which was granted to him November 3, 1784. At his death he left by his will $5,000, the income of which was perpetually to assist in the maintenance of the Union (Episcopal) Church in West Claremont.[†]

[†] His will, dated 13 Nov. 1817, proved 8 July 1818, mentions his wife Olive, grand-nephew Oliver Ashley, the Union Church in Claremont, Melinda, wife of Jonathan Hill, and Isaac Hubbard. [Keene, N. H., Prob. Rec.]

Mass.; died in October 1820 in Springville, Pa.; married 9 August 1770 in Northfield, his cousin Lydia Doolittle, daughter of Lucius and Sarah (Smith) Doolittle, born 25 December 1753 in Northfield; died ———————.

Samuel Ashley, leaving his father's house in Winchester, N. H., where he had spent his youth, settled in Claremont in the same State, and became a man of importance. He lived on what is now known as the Charles Ainsworth farm.

Enlisting in the Revolution, he was appointed First-Lieutenant of the Claremont company, of which his brother Oliver had been commissioned captain July 5, 1776, and was ordered "to go to Newbury for three months or less." This company was the Fourth in Col. Benjamin Bellow's regiment, the Sixteenth New Hampshire, and marched to reënforce the army at Ticonderoga, serving from October 21 to November 16, 1776. During this and the Saratoga campaign, September 21 to October 17, 1777, he acted as Adjutant on Col. Bellows' staff. His company had also served at Ticonderoga until the evacuation, being discharged July 8, 1777, and he probably marched with it to Bennington on August 16th of that year.

He was six days on horseback in Lieut. Jeremiah Spencer's scouting party of twenty-four men, which, in August 1780, went in pursuit of the enemy who had made a raid from Canada on Claremont and adjacent towns. The party searched in the woods three days, and two lieutenants of the British army fell into their hands. About that time Lieutenant Ashley was made Captain in the New Hampshire Line.

After the close of the war Captain Ashley continued to take an active part in military affairs. He was appointed Lieutenant-Colonel of the Fifteenth New Hampshire Militia Regiment on December 25, 1784, and its Colonel on September 25, 1786.*

Colonel Ashley removed with his son Charles to Springville, Susquehanna County, Pa., in the spring of 1818, and died there two years later.

SEVEN ASHLEY BROTHERS - PIONEERS OF POULTNEY, VERMONT

An abstract from the History of Poultney, Vermont states that the site of Poultney was made from a chartered grant of six miles square, made by King George the Third of England, through Benning Wentworth, Governor of New Hampshire, on 21 September 1761 to 61 grantees. These grantees were listed on the back of the charter and among them was the name of Thomas Ashley. It was understood that most, if not all, of these grantees were residents of Litchfield County, Connecticut and Berkshire County, Massachusetts.

7 October 1763 marks the earliest recorded meeting of the proprietors of this grant which was held in Sheffield, Massachusetts. Subsequent meetings were held both in Massachusetts and Connecticut. At the 28 February 1772 meeting held in Canaan, Connecticut, Ethan Allen became Proprietor's Clerk, Elisha Baker, Justice of the Peace, and Thomas Ashley, Treasurer. Also, the house of Heber Allen, a brother of Ethan, in Poultney, Vermont, was voted as the place of the next meeting, which was set for the first Tuesday in April 1772.

The first settlement at Poultney had been made in April of 1771 by Ebenezer Allen and Thomas Ashley. Following soon after (1) Thomas Ashley, were his brothers: (2) John, (3) Elkanah, (4) Isaac, together with his half-brothers, (5) Enoch, (6) Elisha and (7) William. The first four of these Ashleys were sons of an older Thomas Ashley and his first wife Phebe Freeman; the last three were sons of the same Thomas Ashley and his second wife Mary (Bodfish) Gifford. All of these men were natives of Rochester, Massachusetts, and all came into the Poultney area during 1771.

These families endured extreme hardships during their first year in the area. They all built log houses and some moved into these before the roofs were on. They made furnishings from poles and slabs, which were put together using only axes and augers. Heat for warmth and cooking came from fires built on stone slabs made from stones they could pick up from the land. Thus, these early settlers prepared themselves for the rigors of their pioneer endeavors.

These were all highly honest men, unwavering in their patriotism and zeal for the welfare of the new area. All of the brothers were still living in the Poultney area on October 4, 1781 except Isaac, who died in 1777. Each of these Ashleys deserves mention from available information, some of which is very limited.

bd. 05 June 1738 Rochester VR

(1) Because of his services in behalf of Poultney, Thomas Ashley became known as Honorable Thomas Ashley. He was born in Rochester, Massachusetts, 15 June 1738 and died in Poultney on 9 July 1810 and is buried in the East Poultney Cemetery. He married first to Zeriuah Richards, probably about 1761 at Canaan, Connecticut. To this union were born ten children, two sons and eight daughters. Zeriuah died in Poultney on 18 January 1807 and is buried in the East Poultney Cemetery. Thomas then married as his second wife, Mrs. Beulah (Stearns) Dewey, widow of Capt. Zebadiah Dewey; she was also a sister of Mrs. Lydia (Stearns) Marshall, widow of Ichabod Marshall, all of Poultney. There were no children of this marriage.

The deponent further saith that he is by profession a bricklayer but cannot now follow any thing more than to garden a little and that he verily believes that he stands in need of the assistance of his country and that he thinks he deserves it-----Wm. Ashley"

This statement was also signed by Easten Morris, Clerk of the Court. This application was then forwarded to the War Department, Pension Office. Following is a copy of the reply.

War Department Pension Office
Jan 31-1827

Easten Morris Esq.
Greenville-Ohio
Sir: The claims of William Ashley & Samuel Slattery to pensions whose papers it is presumed were forwarded to this Department by you have been examined. Ashley's claim has been rejected, the service set forth in his declaration not having been on the Continental Establishment. Colonel Seth Warner did not command a Continental Regiment as early as 1775 in July or August in which year Ashley states to have enlisted into that regiment. His service under Colonel Herrick & Colonel Fletcher does not entitle him to a pension as those officers never belonged to the Continental Establishment. His declaration will remain on our files agreeably to the regulations of this Department. J.L.E.

Mrs. F. Oris Blackwell, Member #350, 1210 E. Rock Spring Road, Greenvil
NC 27834 has sent us this story on her ancestor, Capt. John Fassett of Bennington, Vermont.

"They hewed this state out of the wilderness, they held it against foreign foe, they laid deep and stable the foundation of our state life because they sought not the life of ease, but the life of effort for a worthy end." (President Theodore Roosevelt, 1902)

Capt. John Fassett (1720-1794) of Bennington and his descendants typical of these men and women who with strong convictions, ideals, an willingness to work hard to promote them, settled the State of Vermont.

Our narrative begins with Capt. Fassett's move to Bennington, Ver from Hardwick, Massachusetts during the summer of 1761. The journey t Bennington via horseback across the mountain by the Hoosic Forts and P was in itself a major undertaking. Accompanying him were his wife, Ma Wooley (1727-1789), and their eight children ranging in age from 4 to head of them. All these families were purchasers under the original g

In this tavern the first proprietors's meeting was held on 11 February
John Fassett was elected clerk of this meeting. The first town meetin

At the first proprietors meeting, a committee was chosen to locat

Later he was chosen a deacon of the Church of Christ in Bennington.
Fassett men were considered valued members of the choir and gave many of faithful service in the church.

As early as October 1764, a military company was formed in town John Fassett elected captain. He was 44 years of age at the time. T was the first regular Vermont Company. Another of the duties he was to perform was to "seek a God-fearing schoolmaster who was not afraid the Indians and all the wolves that ever howled in the New Hampshire
He journeyed to New York but was unsuccessful in his endeavor.

John Fassett represented Bennington in the General Assembly of 1

General Assembly together.

While the Fassett family were not money makers, they were respec ness and devotion to duty were a part of this family's way of life a saying was, "It's as true as that John Fassett will be at prayer meet a certain hour." These traits were passed along to succeeding gener as his descendants continued their move to the northern part of Verm then westward.

John Fassett died in Bennington in 1794 at the age of 74. He i part of Vermont and brief sketches are presented herewith.

The History of Rutland provided the following brief family history of the family: "DEA. ELEAZER BALL was proprietor of House Lot No. 58, and all its after divisions: one of the first settlers of Rutland, and for many years sustained offices in the proprietory, town and church;--when he began to fell the trees, he was not only exposed to many difficulties and privations incident to settlers incident to settlers in the woods far from the habitations of civilization, but to the ravenous bear and wolf, and cruel Indian. Mr. Ball and his wife, Abigail, were from Concord. Their children were Eleazer, born in 1728; Grace, 1730; Phinehas, 1732; Abigail, 1735; Sarah, 1737; Israel, 1739; Hannah, 1741. By Margaret, second wife, Mary, 1744; John, 1747. Abigail, first wife of Dea. Ball died Oct. 9, 1741."

Jonas Reed, A History of Rutland: WORCESTER COUNTY, MASSACHUSETTS, FROM ITS EARLIEST SETTLEMENT, WITH A BIOGRAPHY OF ITS FIRST SETTLERS. (Worcester: Mirick & Bartlett, Printers, 1836), p. 139.

In Part I of Direct Line Descendants of John [Ball], the compiler listed No. 90 Elizabeth, bap. Sept. 15, 1742 as a child of Eleazer and Abigail. The children were the same in both sources with the exception of Elizabeth.

Frank D. Warren, comp. PARTS I, II, 7 1V, BALL FAMILIES OF MASSACHUSETTS, DIRECT MALE LINE DESCENDANTS OF JOHN BALL OF WATERTOWN, MASSACHUSETTS, 1630-1635, (Boston, 1932), p. 3.

The listing in the Rutland Births for Elizabeth reads as follows. Elizabeth, d. Eleazer, Sept. 15, 1742, bap. C.R.

The other seven children were listed as the d. or s. of Eleazer and Abigail. The two children of Eleazer and Margaret (his second wife) were listed as the s. or d. of Eleazer and Margaret.

To be certain that Elizabeth was a daughter of Eleazer and Abigail Ball, I believe that at least another direct source be found to substantiate her as a daughter of Eleazer Ball and Abigail Rogers, his wife.

Rutland Births, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, MASSACHUSETTS, (Systematic History Fund, Franklin P. Rice, Trustee of Fund, 1905), p. 11.

After the death of Abigail (Rogers) Ball, 9 October 1741, Eleazer Ball married Margaret.

MARRIAGE 2: Eleazer Ball married Margaret (---) probably in 1742. Their first child, Mary, was born February 21, 1743-4; John, their second child, was born September 13, 1747.

To date, the record of the second marriage has not been found. It was not listed in Rutland Marriages. The births for Mary and John were found in Rutland Births, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, p. 11.

WIFE - Abigail ROGERS-554

BIRTH: "ROGERS, Abigaill, d. Samuel and Grace, June 9, 1703."

Billerica Births, VITAL RECORDS OF BILLERICA, MASS., TO THE YEAR 1850, (Boston, Mass: (Boston: N.E.H.G.S. at the charge of The Eddy Tows Record Fund, 1908), p. 161.

MARRIAGE: "Eleazar Ball & Abigail Rogers was married by ye Revend. Mr. John Prentice ye 23 day of March 1726-7."

Wife Abigail ROGERS-554

Notes and sources of information

Direct evidence from a primary source provided the identity of Abigail (Rogers) Ball's father: "Know all men by these presents that I Eleazer Ball of Rutland in the County of Worcester in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England husbandman with Abigail my Wife One of the Daughters of Samuel Rogers Late of Harvard in the County of Worcester aforesaid yeoman Deceased for and in Consideration of the sum of thirty Seven pounds Currant [sic] money of said province to us in hand well and truly paid before the [unclear] of by Samuel Rogers of Harvard aforesaid Husbandman . . . and other estate whatsoever situate lying and being in Harvard aforesaid and Elsewhere in New England which our father the Said Samuel Rogers Died Seized and possessed or had any interest in at the time of his decease by any manner of ways or means whatsoever . . . In Witness whereof we have hereunto sett our hand & Seal the Sixth Day of April Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and thirty three in the Sixth year of his majestys Reign George the Second. . . Signed Sealed and Delivered in presence of us Moses How Samuel Wright Worcester SS Rutland April 6th 1733 the above named Eleazer and Abigail Ball personally appearing acknowledged this instrument to be their act and deed. Before me Sanuel Wright Justice of Peace"

Deed from Eleazer and Abigail Ball to Samuel Rogers, Deed Book 23, p., 59, Worcester District Registry of Deeds, Worcester County Courthouse, Worcester, Massachusetts.

DEATH: "BALL, Abigail, w. Eleazar, Oct. 9, 1741. [in her 39th year, G.S]"

Rutland Deaths, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, MASSACHUSETTS, p. 214.

Abigail Ball's tombstone inscription read as follows: "Here lies the Body/of Mrs./ABIGAIL BALL/Wife of Deacon Eleazer/Ball who died Oct./9th 1741 in ye 39th/year of her age."

David Everett Phillips, ed., MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS IN THE OLD CEMETERY AT RUTLAND, WORCESTER COUNTY, MASS., "Laid out" June 7, 1717, (Columbus, Ohio: The "Old Northwest" Genealogical Society, 1902), p. 6.

The Rev. Henry A. Hazen, a.m. in the HISTORY OF BILLERICA, included incorrect information on page 123 concerning Abigail. "6. [Rogers] Samuel, son of John, 2, b. 1672, April 5; m. 1695-6, Jan. 2, Grace --- [Rogers]. She d. 1706, June 12, aged 27, and her grave-stone bears the earliest date in the grave-yard at the 'Corner'." . . . Abigail, b. 1703, April 9 [Billerica]; m. Jonathon Prince.

Abigail Rogers, born 9 April 1703 married Eleazer Ball. A deed from Ball to Rogers in Deed Book 23, page 59, Worcester Registry of Deeds, Worcester County Courthouse, Worcester, Massachusetts, contained the following specific statement concerning the father of Abigail:

"that I Eleazer Ball of Rutland in the County of Worcester . . . with Abigail my Wife One of the Daughters of Samuel Rogers Late of Harvard in the County of Worcester aforesaid yeoman Deceased for and in Consideration of the sum of thirty Seven pounds Currant money of said province to use in hand well and truly paid before the [unclear] of by Samuel Rogers of Harvard . . . and other estate whatsoever situate lying and being in Harvard aforesaid and Elsewhere in New England which our father the Said Samuel Rogers Died Seized . . . Worcester SS Rutland April 6th 1733 . . ."

This writer believes that Jonathon Prince probably married Abigail Rogers, born in Billerica on May 17, 1712, the daughter of John [Rogers] and Abigail.

THE GENEALOGY OF THE PRINCE FAMILY FROM 1660 TO 1899, by Frank A. Prince gave the following information:

Family Group Record- 164

Husband Eleazer BALL-553

Wife Abigail ROGERS-554

Notes and sources of information

"III. Doctor Jonathan (11), b. in Salem village; bapt. there July 20, 1707; m. first, Abigail Rogers, of Billerica; m. second, Mary Porter . . ."

Dr. Prince had one child, Abigail, by his first wife, Abigail. The first child, Jonathon, born to his second wife was born "(Jan. 21, town record.) Oct. 1734."

The above-mentioned data has convinced this writer that Hazen made an error in his HISTORY OF BILLERICA concerning Abigail Rogers, born there on 5 April 1703.

CHILD 1 - Eleazer BALL-555

The History of Rutland by Jonas Reed provided this short summary of the Eleazer Ball, Jr., family. "Eleazer Ball, jun'r, in 1757, married Lucy Derby of Concord, by whom he had Eleazer, born in 1760; Mary, 1762; Phinehas, 1764. Mr. Ball lived in New Boston, near Ware river. He died. His widow married Samuel Chaffin of Holden in 1768."

Henry S. Nourse, a.m., ed., THE BIRTH, MARRIAGE AND DEATH REGISTER, CHURCH RECORDS AND EPITAPHS OF LANCASTER, MASSACHUSETTS, 1643 - 1850, BOOK FIRST, (Lancaster, 1890), p. 24.

The History of Rutland provided the following brief family history of the family: "DEA. ELEAZER BALL was proprietor of House Lot No. 58, and all its after divisions: one of the first settlers of Rutland, and for many years sustained offices in the proprietory, town and church;--when he began to fell the trees, he was not only exposed to many difficulties and privations incident to settlers incident to settlers in the woods far from the habitations of civilization, but to the ravenous bear and wolf, and cruel Indian. Mr. Ball and his wife, Abigail, were from Concord. Their children were Eleazer, born in 1728; Grace, 1730; Phinehas, 1732; Abigail, 1735; Sarah, 1737; Israel, 1739; Hannah, 1741. By Margaret, second wife, Mary, 1744; John, 1747. Abigail, first wife of Dea. Ball died Oct. 9, 1741."

Jonas Reed, A History of Rutland: WORCESTER COUNTY, MASSACHUSETTS, FROM ITS EARLIEST SETTLEMENT, WITH A BIOGRAPHY OF ITS FIRST SETTLERS. (Worcester: Mirick & Bartlett, Printers, 1836), p. 139.

In Part I of Direct Line Descendants of John [Ball], the compiler listed No. 90 Elizabeth, bap. Sept. 15, 1742 as a child of Eleazer and Abigail. The children were the same in both sources with the exception of Elizabeth.

Notes

The Rev. Henry A. Hazen, a.m. in the HISTORY OF BILLERICA, included incorrect information on page 123 concerning Abigail. "6. [Rogers] Samuel, son of John, 2, b. 1672, April 5; m. 1695-6, Jan. 2, Grace --- [Rogers]. She d. 1706, June 12, aged 27, and her grave-stone bears the earliest date in the grave-yard at the 'Corner'." . . . Abigail, b. 1703, April 9 [Billerica]; m. Jonathon Prince.

Abigail Rogers, born 9 April 1703 married Eleazer Ball. A deed from Ball to Rogers in Deed Book 23, page 59, Worcester Registry of Deeds, Worcester County Courthouse, Worcester, Massachusetts, contained the following specific statement concerning the father of Abigail:

"that I Eleazer Ball of Rutland in the County of Worcester . . . with Abigail my Wife One of the Daughters of Samuel Rogers Late of Harvard in the County of Worcester aforesaid yeoman Deceased for and in Consideration of the sum of thirty Seven pounds Currant money of said province to use in hand well and truly paid before the [unclear] of by Samuel Rogers of Harvard . . . and other estate whatsoever situate lying and being in Harvard aforesaid and Elsewhere in New England which our father the Said Samuel Rogers Died Seized . . . Worcester SS Rutland April 6th 1733 . . ."

This writer believes that Jonathon Prince probably married Abigail Rogers, born in Billerica on May 17, 1712, the daughter of John [Rogers] and Abigail.

THE GENEALOGY OF THE PRINCE FAMILY FROM 1660 TO 1899, by Frank A. Prince gave the following information:

"III. Doctor Jonathan (11), b. in Salem village; bapt. there July 20, 1707; m. first, Abigail Rogers, of Billerica; m. second, Mary Porter . . ."

Dr. Prince had one child, Abigail, by his first wife, Abigail. The first child, Jonathon, born to his second wife was born "(Jan. 21, town record.) Oct. 1734."

The above-mentioned data has convinced this writer that Hazen made an error in his HISTORY OF BILLERICA concerning Abigail Rogers, born there on 5 April 1703.

CHILD 1 - Eleazer BALL-555

The History of Rutland by Jonas Reed provided this short summary of the Eleazer Ball, Jr., family. "Eleazer Ball, jun'r, in 1757, married Lucy Derby of Concord, by whom he had Eleazer, born in 1760; Mary, 1762; Phinehas, 1764. Mr. Ball lived in New Boston, near Ware river. He died. His widow married Samuel Chaffin of Holden in 1768."

Notes

The listing in the Rutland Births for Elizabeth reads as follows. Elizabeth, d. Eleazer, Sept. 15, 1742, bap. C.R.

The other seven children were listed as the d. or s. of Eleazer and Abigail. The two children of Eleazer and Margaret (his second wife) were listed as the s. or d. of Eleazer and Margaret.

To be certain that Elizabeth was a daughter of Eleazer and Abigail Ball, I believe that at least another direct source be found to substantiate her as a daughter of Eleazer Ball and Abigail Rogers, his wife.

Rutland Births, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, MASSACHUSETTS, (Systematic History Fund, Franklin P. Rice, Trustee of Fund, 1905), p. 11.

After the death of Abigail (Rogers) Ball, 9 October 1741, Eleazer Ball married Margaret.

To date, the record of the second marriage has not been found. It was not listed in Rutland Marriages. The births for Mary and John were found in Rutland Births, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, p. 11.

WIFE - Abigail ROGERS-554

BIRTH: "ROGERS, Abigaill, d. Samuel and Grace, June 9, 1703."

Billerica Births, VITAL RECORDS OF BILLERICA, MASS., TO THE YEAR 1850, (Boston, Mass: (Boston: N.E.H.G.S. at the charge of The Eddy Tows Record Fund, 1908), p. 161.

Henry S. Nourse, a.m., ed., THE BIRTH, MARRIAGE AND DEATH REGISTER, CHURCH RECORDS AND EPITAPHS OF LANCASTER, MASSACHUSETTS, 1643 - 1850, p. 24.

Direct evidence from a primary source provided the identity of Abigail (Rogers) Ball's father: "Know all men by these presents that I Eleazer Ball of Rutland in the County of Worcester in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England husbandman with Abigail my Wife One of the Daughters of Samuel Rogers Late of Harvard in the County of Worcester aforesaid yeoman Deceased for and in Consideration of the sum of thirty Seven pounds Currant [sic] money of said province to us in hand well and truly paid before the [unclear] of by Samuel Rogers of Harvard aforesaid Husbandman . . . and other estate whatsoever situate lying and being in Harvard aforesaid and Elsewhere in New England which our father the Said Samuel Rogers Died Seized and possessed or had any interest in at the time of his decease by any manner of ways or means whatsoever . . . In Witness whereof we have hereunto sett our hand & Seal the Sixth Day of April Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and thirty three in the Sixth year of his majestys Reign George the Second. . . Signed Sealed and Delivered in presence of us Moses How Samuel Wright Worcester SS Rutland April 6th 1733 the above named Eleazer and Abigail Ball personally appearing acknowledged this instrument to be their act and deed. Before me Sanuel Wright Justice of Peace"

Deed from Eleazer and Abigail Ball to Samuel Rogers, Deed Book 23, p., 59, Worcester District Registry of Deeds, Worcester County Courthouse, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Rutland Deaths, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, MASSACHUSETTS, p. 214.

Abigail Ball's tombstone inscription read as follows: "Here lies the Body/of Mrs./ABIGAIL BALL/Wife of Deacon Eleazer/Ball who died Oct./9th 1741 in ye 39th/year of her age."

David Everett Phillips, ed., MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS IN THE OLD CEMETERY AT RUTLAND, WORCESTER COUNTY, MASS., "Laid out" June 7, 1717, (Columbus, Ohio: The "Old Northwest" Genealogical Society, 1902), p. 6.

PART I

DIRECT LINE DESCENDANTS OF JOHN

First Generation

1 JOHN BALL, born about 1585 in Wiltshire, England, came to this country with Gov. Winthrop's Colony, 1630 to 1635, and settled in Watertown, where he was made a freeman May 22, 1650. He later removed to Concord where he lived with his son, Nathaniel, until he died Nov. 1, 1655.

He is reported to have been the son of William Ball of Wiltshire, England, whose six sons (according to records) emigrated to New England. In the scanty records no mention is made of his wife. It is believed that she did not come to this country and probably died before the embarkation. Of his family, all born in Old England, nothing is known other than that the two sons following accompanied him to these shores. By some authorities his wife was Joanna King.

Children

2 John, b. about 1620.
3 Nathaniel, b. about 1625.

Second Generation

2 JOHN BALL, born about 1620, accompanied his father to this country, became a tailor by trade and settled in Watertown. He married (1) Elizabeth, daughter of John and Elizabeth Pierce, of Watertown, by whom he had six children.

About the year 1655-6, his wife became violently insane, which fact doubtless accounts for the apprenticing of his children as follows:- John Jr. and Mary or marie (aged 5 years) on Jan. 3, 1656, to John Pierce Sr; Sarah (aged 2 years) on Dec. 9, 1656, to Richard Gale; on Aug. 3, 1658, he apprenticed two other children (aged 3 years and 6 months respectively).

His wife died previous to or about 1665.

Children

4 John, b. 1644.
5 Mary, b. 1651; m. 1686, John Sawyer, Lancaster.
6 Sarah, b. 1654.
7 Esther, b. 1655; taken into captivity by Indians.
8 Abigail, b. Feb. 20, 1658; taken into captivity by Indians.

On Aug. 3,1665, he married (2) Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Fox, of Concord. On Oct. 21,1665, he sold his farm in Watertown and removed to Lancaster, where he was one of the three earliest settlers. In the attack upon the town by Indians, Feb.20,1676, he, his wife and son Joseph were slain and two other children (noted above) taken into captivity.

Children

9 Joseph, b. Mar.12,1669 - 70; killed by Indians.

3 NATHANIEL BALL, born about 1625, came to this country with his father and brother, John. He was one of the first settlers in Concord, where he was alloted 13 acres for a homestead. Later on he acquired 137 additional acres on the Bedford road, within the present limits of Bedford.

He married (1), about 1648, Mary (probably Mousall or Wayne).

Children

10 John, b. _____; d. May or July 27, 1649.
11 Nathaniel, b. July 28,1649; d. Oct. or Nov.23,1649.
12 Ebenezer, _______.
13 Eleazer, b. 1651.
14 John, b. Aug.15,1660.
15 Nathaniel, b. July 5,1663.

His wife died Feb.14,1669 and he married (2) Feb.7,1670, Margery (Knight) Bateman of New Ipswich, N.H.

He died Apr.18,1709; she died Jan.14, 1705-6.

d. of Benjamin Cooley, and d. in mid. life, 21 Nov. 1681, leav. Joseph, James, Samuel, Mary, and Hannah; but whether these ch. were all by the sec. w. or whether she m. sec. h. is not told to me. Of the s. Joseph soon rem. to Malden; James to Milford; and in short time this name had vanish. from H. JOSIAH, Milford, s. of John the first, m. 25 June 1667, Mary Camp, d. prob. of Edward of New Haven, and d. 1683, leav. young w. and seven ch. whose names I see not. NATHANIEL, Milford 1639, had John, bef. ment. b. bef. 1640; Daniel, 1644; Nathaniel, 1645; Abigail, 1648, all by w. Abigail, wh. d. 22 Mar. 1648. He next m. Joanna Westcoat, wid. it is said, of Richard of Fairfield (but of him I kn. nothing), liv. at F. 1654, had Sarah, Deborah, and Samuel; d. 1658, and his wid. m. Thomas Skidmore. His ch. went back to M. NATHANIEL, Milford, not s. of the preced. was k. in the gr. swamp fight, 19 Dec. 1675. Other Nathaniels there were at M. nearly at the same time, as in 1677 one is nam. senr. and ano. junr. in a div. of town lds. but ten yrs. later one call. weaver, the other, cooper. NATHANIEL, Milford, s. of Nathaniel the first, m. 1671, Henry Botsford's d. Hannah, had Eliz. b. 1672; Hannah, 1674; Nathaniel, 1676; possib. Esther, 1683; and Samuel, 1684. One Nathaniel d. at M. 1692; and that Nathaniel, wh. fell in Philip's war may have been a stranger to this blood. That s. of the first John wh. bore this name would have been among the later inhab. of M. PETER, Salem, m. 27 May 1672, wid. Rachel Dell. Felt. RICHARD, Braintree 1637, had d. Jane, and from Winth. II. 348 is seen all that is kn. *RICHARD, Milford 1640, came not with f. and mo. prob. (of wh. he was eldest s.) in the Martin to Boston 1638, but foll. soon; m. 1642, Eliz. Alsop, sis. of Joseph Alsop the first, of New Haven, had Mary, bapt. 1643; Eliz. 1644; Sylvanus, b. 1646; Sarah, bapt. 1649; Temperance, 1651; Mary, again, 1653; John; Theophilus, bapt. at New Haven, 19 Sept. 1658; Zechariah, b. 22 Sept. 1660; Martha, 1 Apr. 1663; and Barnabas, posthum. bapt. 1666. In some rec. will be seen Theophilus, b. 26 Apr. 1659; but perhaps it is an error of the yr. He was town clk. 1648, and rep. 1660 to his d. 23 July 1665. Perhaps he was one of the first sett. at Derby, as ment. by Trumbull, Col. Rec. I. 274, 322. He left good est. to his ch. and wid. wh. m. William Fowler. Of the ch. a suffic. story is obtain. Adam Winthrop, had John, H. C. 1735, (that min. of Westfield, wh. d. 12 Feb. 1776); beside Mary, and William; was of ar. co. 1694, was in high esteem, and perhaps the rep. of 1726, tho. in Geneal. His will of 6 Dec. 1669, but few days bef. he d. names w. Hannah and only seven ch. so that it may be conclud. that Benjamin and Sarah, not ment. had d. young. Of the inv. of any cooper in the early yrs. I have common. found a good result, and such was his; yet more import. are the questions of his b. and of his coming. Differing in opin. from a disting. descend. (Hinman in Geneal. Reg. VII. 376,) because he calls him "a Scotch gent. from Ayr. as early as 1653," I ought to offer reasons. H. contrary to the common error, that is of assum. too early a yr. for the arr. of an ancest. on our shore, takes a date that would afford currency

First Generation

1✓ JOHN BALL, born about 1585 in Wiltshire, England, came to this country with Gov. Winthrop's Colony, 1630 to 1635, and settled in Watertown, where he was made a freeman May 22, 1650. He later removed to Concord where he lived with his son, Nathaniel, until he died Nov. 1, 1655.

He is reported to have been the son of William Ball of Wiltshire, England, whose six sons (according to records) emigrated to New England. In the scanty records no mention is made of his wife. It is believed that she did not come to this country and probably died before the embarkation. Of his family, all born in Old England, nothing is known other than that the two sons following accompanied him to these shores. By some authorities his wife was Joanna King.

Children

2 John, b. about 1620.
3 Nathaniel, b. about 1625.

Second Generation

2 JOHN BALL, born about 1620, accompanied his father to this country, became a tailor by trade and settled in Watertown. He married (1) Elizabeth, daughter of John and Elizabeth Pierce, of Watertown, by whom he had six children.

About the year 1655-6, his wife became violently insane, which fact doubtless accounts for the apprenticing of his children as follows:- John Jr. and Mary or marie (aged 5 years) on Jan. 3, 1656, to John Pierce Sr; Sarah (aged 2 years) on Dec. 9, 1656, to Richard Gale; on Aug. 3, 1658, he apprenticed two other children (aged 3 years and 6 months respectively).

His wife died previous to or about 1665.

5 Mary, b. 1651; m. 1686, John Sawyer, Lancaster.
6 Sarah, b. 1654.

8 Abigail, b. Feb. 20, 1658; taken into captivity by

On Aug. 3,1665, he married (2) Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Fox, of Concord. On Oct. 21,1665, he sold his farm in Watertown and removed to Lancaster, where he was one of the three earliest settlers. In the attack upon the town by Indians, Feb.20,1676, he, his wife and son Joseph were slain and two other children (noted above) taken into captivity.

Children

9 Joseph, b. Mar.12,1669 - 70; killed by Indians.

3✓ NATHANIEL BALL, born about 1625, came to this country with his father and brother, John. He was one of the first settlers in Concord, where he was alloted 13 acres for a homestead. Later on he acquired 137 additional acres on the Bedford road, within the present limits of Bedford.

He married (1), about 1648, Mary (probably Mousall or Wayne).

Brown.) Mr. Clark was a facetious man, and a favorite of Col. Murray; yet he entered into the service of his country, and was a soldier of the Revolution; he kept his final settlements until they sold for five hundred dollars, with which he opened a small store. Their children were Patty, Sally and Aaron, who all married; Patty to Isaac Clark of Hubbardston.

Mr Clark and his wife several years ago sold and removed to New York State, and lived with their daughter, Sally.

Dea. Eleazer Ball was proprietor of House Lot No. 58, and all its after divisions: one of the first settlers of Rutland, and for many years sustained offices in the proprietory, town and church;—when he begun to fell the trees, he was not only exposed to many difficulties and privations incident to settlers in the woods far from the habitations of civilization, but to the ravenous bear and wolf, and cruel Indian. Mr. Ball and his wife, Abigail, were from Concord. Their children were Eleazer, born in 1728; Grace, 1730; Phinehas, 1732; Abigail, 1735; Sarah, 1737; Israel, 1739; Hannah, 1741. By Margaret, second wife, Mary, 1744; John, 1747. Abigail, first wife of Dea. Ball died Oct. 9, 1741.

Eleazer Ball, jun'r, in 1757, married Lucy Derby of Concord, by whom he had Eleazer, born in 1760; Mary, 1762; Phinehas, 1764. Mr. Ball lived in New Boston, near Ware river. He died. His widow married Samuel Chaffin of Holden in 1768.

Eleazer Ball, 3d, on Nov. 3, 1783, married Lucy Rozier, by whom he had the following children: Polly, Jonas, Samuel, Rufus, Lucy, Silas Rozier, Joel, Louisa and Adaline. Several of the daughters married and settled in Montreal; Jonas married and lives in Rutland.

Dear Ms. Leach,

Enclosed is all the imformation that I could find.

From the Town Hall Records of Goose Hill Cemtery, I found:

1826	Eleazer Ball	Plot 17
1817	Rufus Ball	Plot 18

Under Rutland deaths pg. 214

I found another Eleazer, is he Abigail's husband? I can't find where he's buried in the Town of Rutland, or if he is.

Sorry I couldn't be more help.

Sincerely,

Jean Bigelow

Dear Gene

Thank you again for your prompt response to my request. I certainly appreciate your help. The copies are so clear & easy to read.

~~So~~ many of my ancestors were in the Rutland area, and these deed records are extremely helpful in my research. William McCobbs, James Wheelers, Eben Balls, Aaron Crawfords & Samuel Rogers of Harvard.

When we were at your office last November, I failed to check the ~~g~~ earliest grantee index. Is it possible to get a copy of the pages from the earliest ~~grantee~~ index for ~~William~~ McCobb. Wheeler, Ball, Crawford & ~~Samuel Roge~~ Rogers.

I also failed to request copies of the following deeds:

1777 Aaron deceased. 1746 Aaron Crawford to Samuel Crawford Bk 22, pg 162
1747 Aaron Crawford to Alexander Crawford. Bk 24 pg 195
